Date: April 15, 2019

RE: Appointment for the Missouri Main Street Board of Directors

Issues

The City of Cameron is seeking to form the Board of Directors for the Missouri Main Street. The Board of Directors will be charged with overseeing the direction of the downtown revitalization efforts. Missouri Main Street will be used as a resource group to assist in promoting economic development and attraction. All applicants offer diverse backgrounds and experience that will help in the planning process to help create innovative ideas.

Recommendation

City Staff recommends the approval of all applicants. The selective group board members are community leaders who are willing to help foster the needs of the city.
